

The departments of English and Mathematics, under the aegis of Hindu College and Majha House, organized a talk with Australian writer Inez Baranay. The talk was moderated by Dr. Gurbartap Singh, and was centred around her life, books and travels. The session was well received and students participated enthusiastically and interacted with Inez. On a lighter note, all students addressed their questions to Inez in English! And asked them without hesitation. Which is a great thing!